

61	A Distant View in Michelle Pfeiffer's Smiling Eyes
61	The Paradox of Tradition
62	Culture and Transition
64	Looking from the Perspective of an Object of a Case Study
67	Transition Over the Barriers of Identity
73	The Pleasure to Forbid Pleasure
74	Sexuality as a "New" Social Issue
75	Conservatism and Traditionalism vs Freedom of Choice
77	Pleasure Against Nation, Nation Against Pleasure
79	Microscopic Human Being
80	Sexual Pleasure is Male
83	3: Transformations: Ways of Art
85	Counter-identification and Politics of Art
85	The Ineffable
88	Reversal of a Perspective
93	Making Statements
95	On Digital Exposures
95	Double Exposure
97	Shanghai Twins
100	Ocean Without a Shore
101	Information Accelerator
103	The Principle of Montage and Literature
105	Döblin's Hesitant Acceptance of Film
106	Reading Berlin Alexanderplatz
109	Montage and De-montage
110	Fassbinder's Alexanderplatz
114	In the Age of Digital Montage-collage
117	Deleuzian Delusionary Dividualism
119	4: Balkan Cinema
121	Robar-Dorin's Mirror: Rams and Mammoths in the Context of Yugoslav History
122	Nationalism and Ethnicity
124	Ethnicity in the Balkans under Communism
127	Images of Nationalism
131	Love of Our Own Soil
139	Troubled History