

MODULE GUIDE

Module title	Competences for coaches (communication with families)
Aim of the module	The module has the following objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To provide trainers with tools to enhance their psychoeducational skills. - To implement strategies to optimise the communication of clubs and coaches with the athletes' families. - creating effective communication protocols between families and the club - gather information on how families view and perceive the club - To develop the roles of each stakeholder (families, club and coaches) and establish what competences each stakeholder has
Learning outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Differentiate the role and competencies I have as a parent within the club where my child trains and competes. - Establish common objectives between the families and the Club to benefit the athletes. - Reach agreements on the discrepant elements between the different agents of sport
Learning activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Questionnaire to collect information on the opinion of families (this information will be transmitted to the families as a summary report). - creation of appropriate communication protocols in sports clubs
Assessment activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Coach satisfaction surveys - Interviews or videos with athletes and families about the activities

Further resources	(Included in the module) - Families questionnaire about communication with the club and coaches
Duration	1 hour per competence